

Farmers' Market Photo Contest

The Better Me Farmers' Market

Offered during fall quarter, the Farmers' Market provides a huge selection of locally grown fruits, vegetables, and other goods. The market is held for seven consecutive Thursdays from 10am – 2pm from September 8, 2011 - October 20, 2011 on the East side of the Gordon Field House facing NTID/Residence Halls.

RIT Better Me is located at 8 Lomb Memorial Drive. For more information call us at (585) 475-2067, check our website, or friend us on Facebook.

The RIT Better Me Wellness Program is proud to present the first annual Farmers' Market Photography Contest. The challenge is to have one photograph truly capture the spirit and excitement of the RIT Farmers' Market. Each photograph should have a title and description, and can be submitted digitally to Better Me. The top three photos will be displayed at the Farmers' Market on October 13th, 2011 where individuals can cast a vote for their favorite photograph. The winning photograph will be revealed on October 20, 2012. Prizes will be awarded to the two runner-ups, and a grand prize will be awarded to the winning photographer.

Photographs must be entered by October 8, 2011 for consideration. The top three photographs will be revealed on October 13th, 2011 and the winner will be announced at the final market on October 20, 2011.

The contest is open to any RIT faculty, staff, or student. There is no cost to enter the contest. The winning photograph will be prominently displayed by RIT Better Me in their advertising efforts including but not limited to Facebook, website, and printed materials. All entered photographs can be used by Better Me. Photo credit will be given for all uses.
