support the RIT community

Every purchase you make on campus makes a big difference. Services available on campus financially support the academic mission at RIT. Everything from t-shirts to gourmet food to state of the art printing can be done within our brick walls.

Always remember to Buy RIT First!

CAMPUS CONNECTIONS

In addition to providing the RIT community with supplies such as books, cameras, clothing and office supplies, the bookstore is also able to have custom t-shirts printed for your organization or event at a low cost. Visit us at the store or go to bookstore.rit.edu

The HUB is comprised of Central HUB Print and Mail Services, Crossroads HUB, and the Campus Post Office. Some of their services include: digital and offset printing, commercial mailings, RIT business cards through the on-line system, large format printing, as well as medium to large size print jobs and individual student project output. In addition, the Campus Post Office provides all the services of the USPS. For a print or mail service request sheet, visit the hub at <http://finweb.rit.edu/hub/>.

Brick City Catering has a variety of catering options available to suit any budget or taste. Great for parties, luncheons, conferences or anything else. A diverse menu ensures that everyone at your special event will enjoy their dining experience. For a catalog and contact info visit their website at finweb.rit.edu/foodservice/catering/.

Purchasing

Purchasing is able to provide you with the names of businesses and vendors who are already committed to providing excellent products and services to the RIT community. A full list of supply sources is available at finweb.rit.edu/purchasing/supply/.
